

Hiking & Cycling in Cap Corse

7 days / 6 nights

Discover Cap Corse on foot and by bike! Set off on an adventure along its coastal and inland trails, winding between picturesque villages and breathtaking landscapes. A nature and sports experience for all lovers of freedom and exploration.

YOUR PROGRAM

Day 1 - Arrival in Bastia

After arriving in Bastia, you will be transferred to the port of Macinaggio, at the tip of Cap Corse. Your hike begins in Macinaggio, at the northeastern tip of the island. This charming village offers many restaurants, an excellent ice cream shop near the port, and a long white sand beach, ideal for a swim before starting your adventure.

Overnight stay in Macinaggio.

Day 2 - Hike from Macinaggio to Barcaggio

Enjoy a magnificent coastal hike on the "customs officers' path" around the summit of Cap Corse. You will discover small secret coves with turquoise waters, in the heart of an enchanting wild maquis. There are many opportunities for swimming, and you will stop at the superb Genoese tower of Santa Maria. Your evening stopover is in the charming little port of Barcaggio, opposite the island of Giraglia.

Distance: approximately 13 km | Duration: 4.5 hours | Elevation: +220 m / -220 m

Overnight stay in Barcaggio.

Day 3 - Hike from Barcaggio to Centuri

Turquoise waters and Genoese towers accompany you all the way to Centuri, one of the most beautiful ports in the region. The hike takes you along more technical rocky sections of the coast and less frequented trails, revealing the limestone landscape of the west coast. Your evening stop in Centuri is ideal for sampling lobster and other freshly caught seafood while enjoying the view of the charming little port.

Distance: approximately 7 miles | Duration: 4.5 hours | Elevation gain: +1,600 feet / -1,600 feet
Overnight in Centuri.

Day 4 - Bike from Centuri to Albo

Today, bikes are delivered to Centuri to reach Albo. The day begins with a small pass offering superb views of the Cap Corse peninsula and Giraglia Island. Once over the pass, the road runs along the west coast, with increasingly wild landscapes: steep mountains plunging into the sea, sheer cliffs, and spectacular views at every turn.

Make the most of this stage to immerse yourself in the unspoiled natural beauty of Cap Corse.

Overnight stay in Albo.

Day 5 - Bike from Albo to Saint Florent

Head south for a day full of discoveries! You'll start with the unusual beach of Nonza, famous for its black pebbles, then visit the Paoline tower, perched above the sea, which offers a splendid view of the listed village of Nonza, popular with tourists for its authenticity.

As you continue south, the landscape changes, giving way to limestone mountains and lush vineyards. In Saint-Florent, nicknamed "the Saint-Tropez of Corsica," you can stroll to the citadel, explore the port, and wander through the small, sun-drenched shopping streets.

Overnight stay in Saint-Florent.

Distances:

24 km (Elevation gain: 300 m; Elevation loss: 296 m; Max. elevation: 301 m)

or 42 km (Elevation gain: 853 m; Elevation loss: 850 m; Max. elevation: 534 m)

Day 6 - Saint-Florent: Between Land and Sea

Today, you can choose your adventure around Saint-Florent.

Cycling option: set off to explore the villages of Nebbiu and Murato. Between peaceful roads and panoramic views of green hills, you will pass through typical villages and enjoy magnificent views of vineyards and the sea. A day full of freedom and discovery in the heart of Cap Corse.

Distance: 50 km (Elevation gain: 816 m / Elevation loss: 813 m / Min. altitude: 0 m / Max. altitude: 467 m)

Hiking option: take the customs officers' path along the coast. Between secret coves, sandy beaches, and turquoise waters, this route offers a perfect blend of wild nature and spectacular coastal landscapes all the way to the Mortella tower. Each step brings you closer to the unspoiled beauty of this iconic region.

Distance: approximately 13 km | Duration: 6 hours | Elevation gain: +131 m / -126 m
